

Residents of Valley View Centre spent an hour Monday afternoon meeting Blake Emmons, star of the television show Funny Farm and the Kinsmen Telemiracle. The residents held a mini Special Olympics and invited the Assiniboia Community Band to perform during the afternoon. Emmons sang with some of the residents and visited with many others including Ralph Hughes. Emmons is in Moose Jaw as a guest of the Canada Week Committee. —Times-Herald Photo