

W6317 NATIONAL

SPECIAL OLYMPICS GAMES BEGIN

The 1995 Saskatchewan Special Olympics Summer Games will be held today in Weyburn. Over 200 athletes, including several travelling from Manitoba, will compete in swimming and athletics, while power lifting has been added as a demonstration sport.

The Games were officially opened Friday night with the arrival of the Flame of Hope which was relayed 1,200 kilometres by 800 law enforcement officers from 26 agencies around the province, to ignite the Special Olympics Flame.